

TEACHER SELF-REFLECTION JOURNAL

Self Monitoring

DATE: November 1, 2022

M T W T F S

TODAY'S REFLECTIONS

- I liked how so many students wanted to know more
- about El Dia de los Muertos. They had many
- questions and shared how their families honored their people's passing.

OBSERVATIONS I MADE ABOUT MYSELF

- Noticed that I got crabby around 10:30 and realized I ate too many chocolates from Sarah.

RED FLAGS/AREAS OF CONCERN

Last class I noticed that a couple of boys in the back, not paying attention, when I went over to ask what's up, Robert responded, "It was not his problem."

Tomorrow, I will change their seats for last class. Too much talking off task!

CONNECTIONS I MADE WITH MY STUDENTS

- Had a quick conversation ^{with} Chris
- Sarah shared her Halloween candy.
- Two students helped clean
the classroom

SOMETHING I WOULD LIKE WORK ON IN MY TEACHING PRACTICE

- focus more on expanding vocabulary practice and
- bring in a creative writing exercise about families.

TOMORROW I LOOK FORWARD TO

- seeing Mateo give his speech
- Teaching "Seeds of Change"
- Lit Circles
- Lunch with the 4th grade teachers.